Dear John Q Sample,

We are writing to inform you of an incident that may have involved your personal information. The Union Labor Life Insurance Company ("Union Labor Life"), an affiliate of Ullico Inc. ("Ullico"), has reported the potential exposure of personal data to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and will shortly be notifying various state regulatory agencies as required by federal and state data privacy laws. The incident arose from what may be the theft of a laptop from Union Labor Life's Silver Spring, Maryland offices. There is no evidence at this time that the data on the laptop has been accessed or acquired by a third party. Therefore, we believe the risk of harm to you is low. The incident was immediately reported to the Montgomery County Police and an investigation by Union Labor Life is ongoing.

The data on the laptop included your name, address, date of birth, social security number and personal health information. This data was used in the application process for medical stop loss and/or group life insurance coverage.

We want to make you aware of steps that we are taking and that you may also take to guard against identity theft or fraud. Please review the enclosed information about Identity Theft Protection.

As a precaution, we have arranged to have AllClear ID, Inc. provide identity protection services to you for 12 months from the date of this notice at no cost to you. The following identity protection services start on the date of this notice and you can use them at any time during the next 12 months. The services AllClear ID will provide are:

AllClear SECURE: The team at AllClear ID is ready and standing by if you need help protecting your identity in the future. You do not need to take action now to have this service available in the future. If you become aware of a problem with your identity or credit, simply call 877-412-7146 and a dedicated investigator will do the work to recover financial losses, restore your credit and make sure your identity is returned to its proper condition. AllClear maintains an A+ rating at the Better Business Bureau.

AllClear PRO: This service offers additional layers of protection including credit monitoring and a $1 million identity theft insurance policy. To enroll in the PRO service, you will need to provide your personal information to AllClear ID.
